

Hortella d'en Cotenet

Mallorcan cuisine is meticulous, ancient and exquisite, combining its ingredients with surprising creativity. Pork and vegetables are the staple foods, and the local folk show a special inclination for mixing sweet and savoury ingredients in meat and fish dishes that are very typical of Mediterranean cuisine.

Hortella d'en Cotenet is located at the Pla de Mallorca, the most rural county of the island. In the middle of the countryside, it is a restaurant combined with an ecologic farm. Therefore, all their products come from their orchard observed from the terraza's restaurant.

It is a place to enjoy the slow food, where urban lifestyle is not possible. Tomeu, the landowner, recommends with great bonhomie the dishes which he has prepared. Here, the problems are discussed with a particular mallorcan style, quite and calmly.

Definitely, Hortella d'en Cotenet is the best way to taste the authentic Mallorcan cuisine.
